

I
Name	Emma Sivyer
Role	Deputy Director Primary and Primary Lead Mentor
Organisation	SWIFT Teacher Training
Phase	Primary
About me	20 years teaching experience 10 years in school senior leadership NPQLTD Skilled in delivering high-quality CPD and mentoring Passionate about delivering outstanding teacher training
Primary teaching is special because:	The difference a primary school teacher can make to a child is profound. Building strong relationships and nurturing children academically, socially and emotionally puts primary teachers in a unique and highly rewarding position. Infusing creativity, energy and enthusiasm into the classroom ensures children develop a passion for each and every subject – building strong foundations for their secondary journeys ahead. Outstanding primary school teachers really do change lives.

Train / Work Somewhere Special	Training new teachers allows me to draw on my own enthusiasm and passion and ignite this in others. Our children deserve to be taught by motivated, committed, skilled practitioners and I feel privileged to work alongside our future teachers to ensure this is the case – setting them up for rewarding, successful and sustainable careers ahead.
Work Somewhere Special	Teaching is a role where you have the power to make a difference every single day. Full of creativity and teamwork, you can arm children with the knowledge, skills and understanding they need to thrive in the world. Building children’s characters with empathy, resilience, perseverance, and kindness really can make a positive difference to their lives ahead.
Live Somewhere Special	On sunny days, you’ll usually find me on the beach with my children, paddle boarding up the Teign estuary or exploring Dartmoor. What a glorious part of the world to live in!